The Regattas at a Glance ...

Grenada Sailing Festival

The 19th running of this friendly regatta that starts the regatta season in style. Great sailing with a strong emphasis on local culture, great food and plenty going on shoreside as well as on the water.

RORC Caribbean 600

10 legs and 600 Nautical Miles of racing in fantastic tradewind conditions in the first offshore race to circumnavigate the Caribbean Islands.

St Maarten Heineken Regatta

This Regatta, who's motto is "Serious Fun!", is renowned for its high energy parties that complement the World Class racing. Large entry numbers means huge parties!

Puerto Rico Heineken Regatta

Famous for its hospitality and superb sailing conditions. This sailing event attracts everything from International big boat sailors to some of the hottest sport boat sailors in the Caribbean.

St Thomas International Rolex

Known as the "Crown Jewel of the Caribbean", For seasoned sailors, this event is fantastic preparation for a hard summer's sailing. For others, it's a great opportunity to combine quality World-class sailing with a holiday in the US Virgin Islands.

BVI Spring Regatta

With an entry list like a Who's Who of Caribbean Sailing, The BVI Spring Regatta and sailing festival increases in popularity every year. Offering great sailing bolstered by top class entertainment and parties at the Regatta Village in Nanny Cay Marina.

Les Voiles de St Barth

The past two years have seen this event grow dramatically with 2012 promising to be the best year yet. St Barths is arguably the most 'chic' and stylish regatta venues imaginable – playground to the rich and famous.

Antigua Sailing Week

The oldest and some would say most prestigious of all is ... Antigua Sailing Week. The sailing is incredible, the parties are legendary and in abundance with great music and free flowing rum. This really is a regatta to experience at least once!
